Abstract

“The Innovation” was launched in May 2020 and rigorously follows the same peer review, editorial, and publishing standards of Cell. There are 197 Editorial members from 21 countries and their research interests cover all disciplines of science. “The Innovation” has been indexed by DOAJ, ADS, Scopus, WHO, Google Scholar, PubMed Central, ESCI, INSPEC, EI, CAS Journal Ranking (Q1). So far, > 45% citations are outside of China. Not surprisingly, the rejection rate has risen to 90%. From submission to publishing, the mean duration was 62 days in 2020-2023. It got CiteScore 2022 (=23.6) on June 8 2023 and first Impact Factor (=32.1) on June 28, 2023, respectively. Meanwhile, four sister journals: The Innovation Life, The Innovation Geoscience, The Innovation Materials, The Innovation Medicine, have been launched on June 25, 26, 27, 28, respectively. And the fifth sister journal, The Innovation Energy, was launched on February 26, 2024. So far, the authors are from 64 countries and the papers had been cited by authors from 139 countries.
